From the beginning of the 22/23 academic year, it is anticipated that tuition fees will not be payable in respect of pupils in the Secondary School if they are residents of Northern Ireland, the United Kingdom or certain other specified Crown Dependencies, or if they are GB or ROI nationals. However, in all other circumstances, parents will be required to pay the Excepted Pupil Tuition Fee. In particular, this will apply to pupils from the European Union (other than pupils from the Republic of Ireland).

If the College does not subsequently offer a place in the Preparatory School or a place through the Guardianship and Family Hosting Service, then the application deposit will be refunded in full. However, if the College does offer a place and the offer is accepted by the parents of the relevant pupil, then the deposit will be held by the College and refunded at the end of the pupil's career in the College..
